ASIA PACIFIC SCREEN AWARDS CHARTER RULES AND REGULATIONS

3. Entry into the Asia Pacific Screen Awards

- 3.1. Films submit for competition consideration via FilmFreeway submission.
- 3.2. Films are entered into competition via official invitation from the Asia Pacific Screen Academy.
- 3.3. APSA does not accept films that do not meet the eligibility requirements as set out in Part B: Eligibility.

4. Award Stages

- 4.1. Films are submitted to the Asia Pacific Screen Awards.
- 4.2. 'Nominees' are determined by the International Nominations Council and announced in October. Producer(s) and/or authorised representatives are provided with the official APSA 'Nominated' laurel for promotional use with the film.
- 4.3. 'Winners' are determined by the International Jury and winners are announced during the Awards Ceremony. Producer(s) and/or authorised representatives are provided with the official APSA 'Winner' laurel for promotional use with the film.

Please see Appendix I for more details on the APSA competition and selection stages.

5. Award Vessel

- 5.1. Winners will receive an award trophy.
- 5.2. One (1) award will be presented to the winning film for each category at the Awards Ceremony, or delivery will be arranged post-event.
- 5.3. Additional awards requested by the winners can be provided at their expense.

6. APSA Academy

- 6.1. All nominees and winners from the awards categories will automatically be inducted into the Asia Pacific Screen Academy.
- 6.2. Members of the Academy are granted exclusive access to submit to the MPA APSA Academy Film Fund for project script development, as well as other networking and development opportunities.

ASIA PACIFIC SCREEN AWARDS CHARTER RULES AND REGULATIONS

PART B: ELIGIBILITY

Only films that meet the following conditions may compete in the Asia Pacific Screen Awards.

1. Definition of the Asia Pacific Region

In this Charter, the "Asia Pacific Region" encompasses the 78 countries and areas listed in Appendix II. The inclusive APSA-defined region is based on culture and heritage rather than politics, borders or boundaries.

Films must have been predominantly created in the Asia Pacific Region; have been predominantly created by filmmakers from the Asia Pacific Region and/or must reflect the cultural origins of the country or area in accordance with The Test (see Appendix III).

2. The Test

- 2.1. A film will qualify as a film from the Asia Pacific Region if it satisfies the criteria set out The Test (see Appendix III). A film will be eligible if it achieves at least nine (9) out of a possible twelve (12) maximum points in 'Content', and at least ten (10) out of a maximum nineteen (19) in 'Creatives'.
- 2.2. The Executive Director of APSA will make the final decision on the qualifying submissions and invitations applying The Test in its absolute discretion and may make an exception to a film that does not qualify if the resultant decision is based on the Asia Pacific culture and heritage content of the film.
- 2.3. The Executive Director of APSA may take in to account the production support of non-Asia Pacific countries or areas that have had major producing roles to support and nurture a film from the Asia Pacific region. This reflects the growing non-border co-production environment of world cinema.
- 2.4. The Executive Director of APSA has the right to make case-by-case exceptions for entries that fail to meet the minimum required points.

3. General

- 3.1. Films must be feature-length, defined as over 60 minutes for fiction and youth films and over 40 minutes for animated and documentary films.
- 3.2. All films provided to APSA must be final and complete. No working titles will be accepted, unless by written agreement from the APSA Secretariat.
- 3.3. A film cannot compete or be considered for an award in multiple APSA years.

4. Premiere Status

- 4.1. Films must be:
  - theatrically released; or
  - presented at an international film festival; or
  - released on a video-on-demand (VOD) platform.
  - A documentary may also be broadcast on free to air, cable or satellite television.

ASIA PACIFIC SCREEN AWARDS CHARTER RULES AND REGULATIONS

- 4.2. Films must have had first public screening (world premiere) or release after 1 August 2023 and before 31 October 2024. If a film had its world premiere before 1 August 2023, it may be considered eligible if it meets one of the following criteria:
  - Internationally premiered after 1 August 2023; or
  - Released theatrically in its own country after 1 August 2023.
- 4.3. The Executive Director of APSA has the right in exceptional cases to not exercise this rule. The Executive Director may take in to account the prevailing conditions of the country or area and the film industry from which the film has been entered. An example being the COVID-19 global pandemic or if the film has been banned or censored in its country of origin and cannot achieve theatrical release.

PART C: ENTRY MATERIALS

1. Entry Materials Required

To make a valid entry into the Asia Pacific Screen Awards the Producer(s) and/or authorised representatives must supply by the entry deadline:

- Submission via FilmFreeway containing film synopsis, premiere status, key credits and contact information.
- A high quality screener that is permitted to be shared with APSA Secretariat and Nominations Council members for APSA selection purposes.
  - Online screeners and passwords must remain valid until 30 September 2024.
  - Any changes to links/passwords must be updated via FilmFreeway.
  - Films should be presented in the language of their original production and English subtitles are required for all entries not in the English language.
  - Watermarks or time coded security on film entries are acceptable, however it is strongly recommended they do not obscure or interrupt the film.
- Three (3) high-quality digital film stills (minimum 300dpi).

2. Entry Fees

- 2.1. Cost to enter is AUD $150.00 and entry fees cannot be refunded once submitted.
- 2.2. A fee waiver or discount may be provided at the discretion of the APSA Secretariat and taking into account the prevailing conditions and economic situation of the applicant's home country or territory.
- 2.3. Producer(s) and/or authorised representatives are wholly responsible for any additional costs associated with the production of film materials for the purposes of the submission or any nominations received.

3. Entry Deadline

- 3.1. Submissions close 16 August 2024.
- 3.2. Extensions to deadlines must be by invitation and/or written agreement from the APSA Secretariat.

ASIA PACIFIC SCREEN AWARDS CHARTER RULES AND REGULATIONS

PART D: SELECTION OF NOMINEES AND WINNERS

1. Selection Process

- 1.1. Please see Appendix I for a detailed breakdown of the APSA Competition Process.
- 1.2. Competition Advisors, Nominations Council and Jury members are independent, suitably qualified experts, selected and appointed by APSA.
- 1.3. Selection panellists will undertake fair consideration of the merits of all eligible films.
- 1.4. Selection panellists will be provided with access to secure online screeners as provided by Producer(s) and/or authorised representatives and may deliberate on nominees and winners via a virtual platform.
- 1.5. All deliberation meetings will be attended by an independent scrutineer who is registered by the Australian Securities and Investment Commission.
- 1.6. All selection panellists will sign confidentiality and conflict of interest declarations and will not appear on more than one panel per year.
- 1.7. Any person determined by APSA to have taken part in, or to have or perceived to have an interest in relation to, the production or distribution of a film in the Asia Pacific Screen Awards will declare that interest and will not vote for the film(s) with which the person has declared an interest. APSA and the independent scrutineer will oversee the declared interest and voting process to maintain the integrity of this rule and the overall voting process.
- 1.8. In the case of tied votes at any stage, the independent scrutineer will detail the votes cast to the Chair or President, who will either:
  - exercise a casting vote; or
  - ask the Nominations Council or Jury to deliberate further and vote again in order to reach a definitive decision; if this fails, the Chair or President will exercise a casting vote.
- 1.9. The final results will be known only by APSA Secretariat and selection panellists and will be scrutinised by an independent scrutineer.
- 1.10. All decisions made by APSA Secretariat and selection panellists are final and no correspondence will be entered into.

2. Selection of Nominees

- 2.1. Nominations Councils have the right to consider a film across multiple eligible types: i.e. Fiction and/or Youth and/or Animation and/or Documentary. However, a film can only be nominated in one of these types.
- 2.2. Youth films will also be considered by Nominations Councils for the Cultural Diversity Award and Young Cinema Award categories.
- 2.3. Based on a weighted voting system or by reaching consensus, the Nominations Councils will nominate within the following categories:
  - Best Film – up to five (5) Nominations
  - Best Animated Film – up to five (5) Nominations
  - Best Documentary Film – up to five (5) Nominations
  - Best Youth Film – up to five (5) Nominations

ASIA PACIFIC SCREEN AWARDS CHARTER RULES AND REGULATIONS

- Best Director – up to five (5) Nominations
  - Best Screenplay – up to five (5) Nominations
  - Best Cinematography – up to five (5) Nominations
  - Best Performance – up to five (5) Nominations
- 2.4. APSA Secretariat has the right, at its discretion, to name any additional qualified individual(s) as nominee(s), as applicable, to the relevant award category.
  - 2.5. APSA Secretariat may, with general consensus, reduce or increase the number of nominations in the award categories.
  - 2.6. In the event a nominated film is declared ineligible by APSA Secretariat, it will be suitably replaced at the discretion of APSA, in agreement with the relevant Nominations Council and independent scrutineer; or the film may not be replaced and the category will remain with one less nomination.
  - 2.7. APSA will announce the nominees in each award category in an official press announcement five (5) to eight (8) weeks before the Asia Pacific Screen Awards Ceremony. All successful nominees will be notified by APSA prior and/or at the time of the official press announcement.
  - 2.8. Once a film has been selected for nomination it cannot be withdrawn from the Asia Pacific Screen Awards without written advice to APSA Secretariat.
  - 2.9. All decisions made by APSA Secretariat and selection panellists are final and no correspondence will be entered into.

3. Selection of Winners

- 3.1. The International Nominations Council will determine the winners of the Cultural Diversity Award, Young Cinema Award and Best New Performer Award from the pool of eligible fiction films.
- 3.2. From the list of nominated films the International Jury will, by way of a weighted voting system or by reaching consensus, determine one (1) winner for each of the awards categories.
- 3.3. The International Jury may at their discretion allocate a limited number of Special Mentions in the award categories.
- 1.1. The International Jury may award the Jury Grand Prize to any key individual attached to a nominated fiction film.
- 3.4. Results will be kept secret until the announcement at the Asia Pacific Screen Awards Ceremony.

PART E: AWARD CATEGORY RULES

1. Best Film

- 1.1. The individuals who will be credited, nominated and awarded for Asia Pacific Screen Awards purposes must have screen credits as Producer(s) and Director(s). APSA defines Producer(s) as the main Producer(s) credited in the film, this is not inclusive of Executive Producers, Co-Producers, Associate Producers, etc.

ASIA PACIFIC SCREEN AWARDS CHARTER RULES AND REGULATIONS

- 1.2. Producers credited on anthology/omnibus works must be the credited Producer of the overall anthology/omnibus works, regardless of whether each segment has individual Producers attached.

ASIA PACIFIC SCREEN AWARDS CHARTER RULES AND REGULATIONS

4. Best Youth Film

- 4.1. As a guide, using the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child, a child is considered to be any human being below the age of 18. The definition therefore includes babies, small children, older children and young people.
- 4.2. Films that will be considered suitable as a youth film include those that are for and/or about young people, and/or told partly or entirely from a youth's point of view and/or a film that at its heart is made for young people.
- 4.3. The individuals who will be credited, nominated and awarded for Asia Pacific Screen Awards purposes must have screen credits as Producer(s) and Director(s). APSA defines Producer(s) as the main Producer(s) credited in the film, this is not inclusive of Executive Producers, Co-Producers, Associate Producers, etc.
- 4.4. Producers credited on anthology/omnibus works must be the credited Producer of the overall anthology/omnibus works, regardless of whether each segment has individual Producers attached.
- 4.5. In the case of an anthology/omnibus works the individuals who will be credited, nominated and awarded for Asia Pacific Screen Awards purposes will be the Producer(s). Directors will be extended an invitation into the APSA Academy.

5. Best Director

- 5.1. Films that have multiple directors are eligible.
- 5.2. The individual(s) who will be credited, nominated and awarded for Asia Pacific Screen Awards purposes must have screen credit as Director and/or Co-Director.

6. Best Screenplay

- 6.1. The individual(s) who will be credited, nominated and awarded for Asia Pacific Screen Awards purposes must have screen credit as Screenwriter and/or Co-Screenwriter.
- 6.2. Original or Adapted Screenplays are eligible.
- 6.3. The Award will be determined by English language subtitled submissions. As selection panellists will be using this version as a common language for assessment purposes, it is strongly recommended that the Producer/Production Company ensures the best possible English subtitled translation from the original language works.

7. Best Cinematography

- 7.1. The individual(s) who will be credited, nominated and awarded for Asia Pacific Screen Awards purposes must have screen credit as Cinematographer or Director of Photography/DOP.

8. Best Performance & Best New Performer

- 8.1. The individual(s) who will be credited, nominated and awarded for Asia Pacific Screen Awards purposes must have screen credit for a main character in the film.
- 8.2. All fiction films with performers in their first or second lead feature length role are eligible for consideration for Best New Performer.

ASIA PACIFIC SCREEN AWARDS CHARTER RULES AND REGULATIONS

- 8.3. Dubbed performances will be ineligible. Singing that is dubbed will not affect the performer's eligibility unless it constitutes the entire performance.
- 8.4. Voice performances for characters in an animated feature are not eligible.

9. Cultural Diversity Award

- 9.1. This award goes to the film that creatively utilises its medium to best exemplify the manifold ways in which a society's cultural heritage and its artistic expressions are showcased.
- 9.2. All fiction films are eligible for the Cultural Diversity Award.
- 9.3. The individuals who will be credited, nominated and awarded for Asia Pacific Screen Awards purposes must have screen credits as Director(s) and Producer(s). APSA defines Producer(s) as the main Producer(s) credited in the film, this is not inclusive of Executive Producers, Co-Producers, Associate Producers, etc.

10. Jury Grand Prize

- 10.1. The Jury Grand Prize may be awarded to any key individual attached to a nominated fiction film.
- 10.2. The Jury Grand Prize winner will be automatically inducted to the APSA Academy.

11. Young Cinema Award

- 11.1. All fiction films that have been directed by first or second time feature-length filmmakers are eligible for consideration.
- 11.2. The International Nominations Council will determine the winning filmmaker by way of secret ballot vote or general consensus.
- 11.3. The recipient will be automatically inducted to the APSA Academy.
- 11.4. APSA Secretariat may announce the winner in an official press announcement before the Asia Pacific Screen Awards Ceremony. If so, the winner will be notified by APSA prior and/or at the time of the official press announcement.

12. FIAPF Award for outstanding achievement in film in the Asia Pacific region

- 12.1. FIAPF–International Federation of Film Producers Associations (FIAPF) will decide the winner in this category in its absolute discretion.
- 12.2. The FIAPF Award recipient will be automatically inducted to the APSA Academy.
- 12.3. APSA Secretariat may announce the winner in an official press announcement before the Asia Pacific Screen Awards Ceremony. If so, the winner will be notified by APSA prior and/or at the time of the official press announcement.

PART F: IF YOUR FILM IS NOMINATED

1. Attendance at the Asia Pacific Screen Awards Ceremony & Asia Pacific Screen Forum

- 1.1. Subject to the receipt by APSA of all nominated film materials required and pending any travel restrictions in place, nominated filmmakers will be encouraged to attend the Asia Pacific Screen Awards Ceremony in Australia on Saturday, 2

ASIA PACIFIC SCREEN AWARDS CHARTER RULES AND REGULATIONS

November 2024.

- 1.2. If physical attendance is not possible, virtual attendance at the Awards Ceremony and Asia Pacific Screen Forum will be encouraged for all nominees.
- 1.3. Further terms and conditions of travel will be provided to all nominees at time of announcement.

2. Nominated Film Materials Required

- 2.1. The Producer(s) and/or authorised representatives of each nominated film must, within five (5) business days after receiving notification of their successful nomination, deliver the following materials to APSA:
  - An online high quality version of the film that was entered for competition, at full running length. Films will be retained by APSA under tight security until the deliberation process is completed. Films will be used for private Jury viewing to determine the APSA winners.
  - Current biographies, high resolution headshots (300 dpi) and contact email for all nominated filmmakers.
  - At least one film excerpts per nomination each up to three (3) minutes in length in high definition digital file format (e.g. ProRes 422 HQ .mov (QuickTime) file or mp4 file at 1920 x 1080p or higher resolution). Film excerpts must best reflect the nominated category.

APSA may also determine suitable film excerpts, as appropriate to the awards categories, and request high definition versions to be supplied.
  - A trailer in MOV or MP4 format.
  - Permission to privately share online screeners (watermarked and/or password-protected as required) with accredited media representatives and Asia Pacific Screen Forum industry delegates for the purposes of promoting the film and its nomination. This permission will be re-confirmed upon nomination.
- 2.2. Producer(s) and/or authorised representatives must bear the cost of producing any nomination materials.
- 2.3. In the event the Producer(s) and/or authorised representatives fail to supply the materials required, the nomination will be disqualified.

3. Grant of Rights to Film Materials

- 3.1. The Producer(s) and/or authorised representatives acknowledge and agree that they are solely responsible for obtaining all necessary authorisations and/or licences relating to the use of copyright material and material containing the intellectual property rights of any person in the nominated film materials (including licences of moral rights). APSA takes no responsibility for any failure by the Producer and/or authorised representatives to obtain any necessary authorisations and/or licences.
- 3.2. The Producer(s) and/or authorised representatives agree APSA has the right to:
  - Screen the nominated film free of charge to selection panellists for the purposes of determining the nominees and winners of the Asia Pacific Screen Awards.

ASIA PACIFIC SCREEN AWARDS CHARTER RULES AND REGULATIONS

- Screen nominated film excerpts on large screens and monitors at the Awards Ceremony and at any pre- and post-Asia Pacific Screen Awards Ceremony functions.
- Make the nominated film screener privately available to accredited press and industry during the Awards Ceremony and Asia Pacific Screen Forum period.
- Share film information with press for the purposes of promoting the film.
- Use the supplied entry materials as well as nominated film materials at the Awards Ceremony, at pre- and post- Awards Ceremony functions, and in marketing collateral.
- Use supplied materials to publicise the Asia Pacific Screen Academy, including the Awards and Forum, by any means including on its website, social media, YouTube video channel, in highlights trailers, in public relations, advertising and promotional materials.
- Incorporate (and permit its assignees, licensees, producers, agents and contractors to incorporate) selected excerpts and stills from the nominated film into television programs produced by APSA (or an assignee, licensee, producer, agent or contractor of APSA) in relation to any Asia Pacific Screen Awards Ceremony or function where all intellectual property rights will be owned by APSA and or licensed to other third party licensees at APSA's absolute discretion (including for transmission an unlimited number of times of each of the programs and in any version thereof, in whole or in part via any and all media now known or hereafter developed in perpetuity).
- Translate (and authorise third parties to translate) the materials or excerpts into any and all languages.

PART G: GENERAL

1. Authority/Dispute

1.1. APSA Secretariat reserves the right in its sole and absolute discretion to:

- Determine whether an entry is validly made in accordance with this Charter;
- Reject any entry that is not validly made in accordance with this Charter;
- Determine what process, if any, it may adopt to resolve the validity of any entry;
- Determine the appropriate film categories for any film and override the selection of the film category made by the entrant;
- Determine the composition of the APSA International Nominations Council and Juries;
- Vary the awards that are presented or introduce new awards categories into the Asia Pacific Screen Awards;
- Settle all disputes in relation to this Charter and the Asia Pacific Screen Awards;
- Settle all cases in relation to the Asia Pacific Screen Awards that are not covered by this Charter; and
- Delegate any power, right or discretion under this Charter conferred on it to the APSA Secretariat.

ASIA PACIFIC SCREEN AWARDS CHARTER RULES AND REGULATIONS

- 1.2. In the event of any dispute concerning credits, APSA reserves the right to declare any film ineligible or, alternatively, to reject all claims to credit, list the credits as being in controversy and withhold any award until the dispute is resolved.
- 1.3. The decisions of APSA will be final and binding, and no correspondence will be entered into.

2. Representations and Warranties

- 2.1. Producers and/or authorised representatives represent and warrant in respect to each film that it has delivered to APSA, and any materials that it delivers to APSA, that:
  - the film and any other materials delivered to APSA comply with the terms and conditions set out in this Charter.
  - it has the unrestricted authority to enter the film in the Asia Pacific Screen Awards and grant the rights specified in this Charter whether in its own right or on behalf of any third party directly or indirectly associated with it;
  - the information that it has or will provide to APSA is complete and accurate;
  - it will not make any statement or act in any manner which, in the opinion of APSA, may bring the reputation of the Asia Pacific Screen Awards into disrepute;
  - the film is its original work and it is the owner of the copyright in the film;
  - the copyright in the film and any materials delivered with its entry and the dramatic and musical material upon which it is based or which are contained in the film or materials delivered to APSA will be valid and subsisting for the full term of copyright and (if applicable) copyright renewal;
  - neither the film, nor any part of the film, nor any materials contained in the film, nor any other materials delivered to APSA, infringe any trade mark, trade name, contract, agreement, copyright, literary, artistic, dramatic, personal, or property right or right of privacy or any other right whatsoever of, or defames, slanders or libels any person whatsoever;
  - it has not sold, assigned, transferred, conveyed, or otherwise encumbered, and will not sell, assign, transfer, convey, or otherwise encumber to any party, any right, title or interest in and to the film or any materials delivered to APSA or any part of the film or those materials, which would interfere with APSA's employment of the rights granted to APSA under this Charter;
  - it has obtained and will maintain all necessary licences for the production, synchronisation, exhibition, performance, distribution marketing and exploitation of the film and other materials delivered to APSA to exercise the rights granted under this Charter;
  - there is no pending or threatened claim or litigation with respect to the film or other materials submitted to APSA, and the Producer(s), and/or Sales Agent, and/or Distributor will promptly notify APSA if any claim should be made or any litigation should be commenced with respect to the film or other materials submitted to APSA.

ASIA PACIFIC SCREEN AWARDS CHARTER RULES AND REGULATIONS

3. Indemnity

- 3.1. Producer(s) and/or authorised representatives hereby agree to indemnify, defend and hold APSA, its parent, subsidiary, related and affiliated entities and each of their officers, directors, agents, representatives, shareholders and employees harmless from any and all claims, suits, expenses, damages or other liabilities, including reasonable legal fees and court costs, suffered by APSA as a result of:
  - any breach by the nominating film organisation or the Producer(s) and/or authorised representatives of the representations and warranties or other terms and conditions set out in this Charter; and
  - any use by APSA (or any of its licensees, producers, agents or contractors) of the film or any other materials submitted to APSA in accordance with this Charter violating or infringing any trade mark, trade name, contract, agreement, copyright, literary, artistic, dramatic, personal, or property right or right of privacy or any other intellectual property rights whatsoever of any third party, or defaming, slandering or libeling any person whatsoever.
- 3.2. The Producer(s) and/or authorised representatives acknowledge and agree that APSA will not be responsible for paying any fees or copyright royalties in relation to film materials.
- 3.3. While APSA will take reasonable steps to prevent any unauthorised third parties from accessing or misusing any film that is provided for consideration by the APSA Secretariat and selection panellists, APSA will not be responsible for any unauthorised access or misuse or any loss and/or damage of a film and nominated materials.
- 3.4. While APSA will take reasonable steps to ensure a secure platform is in place for any virtual deliberations and discussions, APSA will not be responsible for any technological failures or disclosure of confidential information.

4. Rules for Publicity and Promotions

- 4.1. Nominees and winners may refer in advertising and publicity to the fact that they are an "Asia Pacific Screen Awards" nominee or winner. The award nominees and winners must (and must ensure their distribution companies agree to) use the exact wording of the Asia Pacific Screen Awards and display of the APSA award laurel as set out by the Asia Pacific Screen Awards.
- 4.2. Nominees and winners agree to refer to (and procure that their distribution companies refer to) the nomination or the award in all future promotion campaigns, for example, on poster and day bill campaigns, in magazine and newspaper advertising and in trailers with Nominated and Winner Laurels of the Asia Pacific Screen Awards provided at the time of nominee and winner notification.
- 4.3. The Producer(s) and/or authorised representatives acknowledge and agree that APSA owns all intellectual property rights (including copyright, trade mark, confidential information, design and patent, whether Australian or foreign, and whether registered or unregistered) in the Asia Pacific Screen Awards including all intellectual property rights in the name "Asia Pacific Screen Awards" and any other registered or unregistered trade mark, brand, slogan, logo, emblem or other device now used or developed in the future relating to the Asia Pacific Screen Awards.

ASIA PACIFIC SCREEN AWARDS CHARTER RULES AND REGULATIONS

5. Force Majeure Event

- 5.1. In the circumstance of a Force Majeure Event:
- APSA will not be liable for any delay or failure to perform its obligations as described in this Charter; and
  - APSA may make alternative arrangements to proceed with the competition in a matter it sees fit.
- 5.2. For the purposes of this clause, a Force Majeure Event means any event that is not reasonably within the control of the parties including inclement weather, lighting strikes, fire, flood, inundation, earthquakes, smoke, explosions, bomb threats, epidemics, pandemics, labour troubles, strikes or other industrial disturbances, inevitable accidents, war (declared or undeclared) embargoes, blockades, legal restrictions, riots and threats of damage to person or property.

6. General

- 6.1. This Charter is governed by and must be construed according to the law applying in Queensland, Australia and each entrant irrevocably submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Queensland, Australia, and the courts competent to determine appeals from those courts, with respect to any proceedings that may be brought at any time in relation to this Charter.
- 6.2. This Charter may be varied by APSA Secretariat in its absolute discretion and any variations will be binding on each entrant once such variations have been published on the APSA website.
- 6.3. APSA may assign, novate or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations under this document without the prior consent of any person. Each entrant cannot assign, novate or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations under this document without the prior consent of APSA.

7. Interpretation

In this document:

- headings are for convenience only and do not affect interpretation;
- an obligation or liability assumed by, or a right conferred on, two or more parties binds or benefits all of them jointly and each of them severally;
- "person" "Producer(s)" and "authorised representatives" include an individual, the estate of an individual, a corporation, an authority, an association or a joint venture (whether incorporated or unincorporated), a partnership and a trust;
- a reference to a party includes that party's executors, administrators, successors and permitted assigns, including persons taking by way of novation;
- a reference to a document (including this document) is to that document as varied, novated, ratified or replaced from time to time;
- a word importing the singular includes the plural (and vice versa), and a word indicating a gender includes every other gender;
- if a word or phrase is given a defined meaning, any other part of speech or grammatical form of that word or phrase has a corresponding meaning; and
- "includes" in any form is not a word of limitation.
